

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The Navajo Nation Division of Natural Resources & Forestry Department is presenting the results of its year long planning effort for future management of the forestlands by hosting two Open Houses to showcase the development of an Integrated Resource Management Plan (IRMP) for the Chuska and Carrizo Mountains, the Defiance Plateau, Mt. Powell and Navajo Mountain.

The IRMP is a long-term strategic planning document that will provide guidance for future resource management activities. The purpose is to look at the natural & cultural resources within the Navajo Nation Forestland areas collectively to better coordinate resource management across the Navajo Nation and with government agencies and the community.

Please attend the upcoming Open Houses to learn more about the IRMP. The schedule and locations for the Open Houses are listed below:

Wednesday June 6th: St. Michaels, St. Michaels Chapter House 5:00 to 8:00 PM

Thursday June 7th: Shiprock, Shiprock Chapter House, 5:00 PM – 7:00 PM
